

Gabriel Palatchi Band

Soar on a musical tour south of the border and experience the energy and rhythms of the Gabriel Palatchi Band.

Argentinian pianist composer and arranger Gabriel Palatchi's much anticipated debut CD "Diario de Viaje" (Travel Diary) was the result of cumulative and inspired experiences acquired during his travels throughout Argentina, Cuba and Mexico.

With deep roots in afro-cuban and latin jazz, he has fused together an original sound and style of music that includes tango, klezmer, salsa, funk and electronic.

Joined by a group of international talented musicians, Gabriel Palatchi Band promises an experience that will take you on a musical journey that you won't forget....

Band Members:

- Gabriel Palatchi piano, hammond & vocals
- Marcela Galvan..... sax, flute & vocals
- Manuel Gonzalez congas & percussion
- Alexis Baro..... trumpet
- Gabriel Gonzalez electric bass
- Chema Gonzalez drums, timbales & vocals

Bio:

Gabriel Palatchi was born on August 3, 1982 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. At the age of 8 he started his first piano lessons. He then went on to study classical music at the conservatory Manuel de Falla school in Argentina. His studies led him to a Musical Production degree. He further expanded his studies with a degree in music from the Berklee international School. During this time he studied under many great maestros of Blues, Tango, Jazz and Latin Jazz.

After graduating in 2008, he packed up his piano and started to travel to expand his musical studies and experiences. It was in Cuba where he met and studied with several maestros including the master "Chucho" Valdez. He continued his travels to Mexico, where he continued to expand on his musical studies and experience.

These travels continue today. Gabriel's experiences led to the composition and production of his first solo CD entitled "Diario de Viaje" (Travel Diary).

His CD was chosen as one of the best Latin Jazz CD's of the 2010 by the JAZZ FM TORONTO Cafe Latino 91.1.

Press clippings:

"...Their live performance awed the crowds and left people wanting more"
- Aidan Farrelly - Artistic director of the Kaslo Jazz Etc Fest.

...Pianist Gabriel Palatchi provides a worldly perspective on the traditional Latin jazz sound and with this impressive debut, stakes his claim as one of the new young lions of Latin jazz..."

- Edward Blanco – music critic – Ejazznews.com

"...He is a skilled pianist, who plays with refreshing virtuosity.....The beautiful manner in which Palatchi melds old segments of folk music in to the transitions from one of his compositions to the next provides just the right contrast between old and new..."

- Raul Da Gama - music critic - www.latinjazznet.com

"...Gabriel has this uncanny gift of song, and this was certainly demonstrated in his ability to wow the crowd. This show was a must see!

- Rob Young – Beat Niq Jazz Club Proprietor

"..An intelligent and diverse musical excursion. Top notch musicianship, inventive arrangements and elegant form. A nod to past tradition with a modern and refreshing twist...A traveler's vision which many will enjoy..."

- Laura Fernandez - Producer, singer & host Cafe Latino JAZZ.FM91

"...The resulting 10-track disc spans the stylistic spectrum from Latin-infused jazz to tango to flat-out dance tracks — all tied together with Palatchi's superb keyboard skills.- John Terauds- music critic – The Toronto Star newspaper

"...A sense of musical realism and creative authenticity cuts across genres, generations, and geographic locales..."

-Matthew Forss - music Critic - Insideworldmusic.com

"..Certainly a highly musical journey trough various exciting and entertaining cultural rhythms that seems to inspire the musicians..."

-Don Albert – music critic – Newstime Jazzaholic Southafrica.

Contact and booking Information:

Gabriel Palatchi

Phone: 6477668208 (Canada) / 9847459784 (Mexico) / 48312463 (Argentina)

Email: palatchiband@gmail.com

Official website: www.gabrielpalatchi.com

Fanpage: facebook.com/gabrielpalatchipianist

