Bio:

Gabriel Palatchi was born on August 3, 1982 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He started playing piano at age 8, going on to study classical music at the conservatory Manuel de Falla school in Argentina, eventually leading to a high school Musical Production degree. Gabriel then went on to pursue a degree in music from the Berklee International School in Argentina. During this time, he studied under many great teachers of Blues, Tango, Jazz and Latin Jazz.

After graduating in 2008, he packed up his piano and traveled abroad to build on his experience at university. It was in Cuba where he met and studied with the world renowned pianist "Chucho" Valdez. Gabriel continues to travel extensively, performing and composing throughout Mexico and Canada. These diverse musical experiences led to the composition and production of his first solo album entitled "Diario de Viaje" (Travel Diary), recorded in 2010 in Mexico City, which was chosen as one of the best Latin Jazz CD's of the year by JAZZ FM TORONTO. His latest and second album, 'Caja Musical' (music box) was recorded in Buenos Aires, Argentina in May 2013. Both productions feature musical arrangements from over 20 accomplished musicians from Latin America. His music is being played on radio stations all over the world from Alaska through to South America, Europe, the Middle East and Australia. It has been reviewed and featured on the Latin Jazz Network, Ejazznews, Rolling Stone Magazine, The Toronto Star, Salsa Son Timba Colombia, World Music Report, Newstime South Africa, Inside World Music and many others.

Gabriel's music is an original blend of different genres such as Latin Jazz, Tango, Funk, Klezmer, Gypsy, Reggae, Samba and Electronic, a representation of the many cultures which have influenced his music.

Currently, Gabriel splits his time between Canada (Toronto, Vancouver, Montreal), Mexico (Caribbean and Mexico City) and Argentina (Buenos Aires). The band has performed at several music festivals such as the Vancouver Jazz Fest, Victoria Jazz Fest, Quebec City Jazz Fest, Waterloo Jazz Fest, Kaslo Jazz Fest, Caribbean Days Festival and Starbelly Jam Fest among many others.

The recording of the new and 3rd CD is scheduled for March 2015 featuring a 'Power Trio'. The release tour for 2015 includes Argentina, Mexico, Canada and Europe.
